
Delisa M. Martinez

Associate

DMMartinez@mdwgcg.com

Wilmington – 302.552.4343

Delisa focuses her practice on workers' compensation and employment law defense in Delaware. She represents employers, insurance carriers and third-party administrators before the Industrial Accident Board and Delaware courts. She also has previous experience in commercial litigation and family law.

Delisa obtained a Bachelor of Law in the Dominican Republic, where she was a practicing attorney before moving to the United States in 2018. Delisa returned to law school to pursue her J.D. at Drexel University Thomas R. Kline School of Law. While at Drexel, Delisa served as a Global JD Representative for the Student Bar Association and was the Secretary of the Latin American Law Student Association. She was the recipient of the Faculty Award for Outstanding Achievements in Legal Ethics and the CALI Excellence for the Future Award for excellent achievement in the study of Foundation of Legal Analysis, Legal Methods II, and International Business Transactions.

Delisa volunteered at Philadelphia VIP as an interpreter for Spanish-speaking clients during law school, and currently volunteers as a pro bono attorney for Spanish-speaking clients at Philadelphia VIP and Delaware Volunteer Legal Services.

Education

- Drexel University Thomas R. Kline School of Law (J.D., 2023)
- Drexel University Thomas R. Kline School of Law (LL.M., 2019)
- Universidad Autónoma de Santo Domingo (LLB, 2015)

Admissions

- Pennsylvania, 2023
- U.S. District Court Eastern District of Pennsylvania, 2024
- Delaware, 2024

Practices

- Workers' Compensation Defense

Languages

- Spanish (Fluent)
- French (Intermediate)

Associations & Memberships

- Bar Association of the Dominican Republic
 - Delaware State Bar Association
-

Thought Leadership

June 8, 2026

Another Case of Superior Court Weighing the Facts Rather than Simply Examining the Record to Determine if Substantial Evidence Exists to Support the Board's Factual Findings and Conclusions?