Philadelphia – 215.575.2732

Laura is a member of the Professional Liability Department and focuses her practice on the defense of professionals, businesses, and organizations in construction matters. Laura represents a range of clients, including architects, engineers, and general contractors. She also works directly with appellate matters for the firm's clients. She handles all phases of litigation from inception through appeal, providing counsel and advocacy throughout the process.

Prior to joining Marshall Dennehey, Laura clerked for multiple trial level and appellate court judges in Pennsylvania and previously practiced insurance defense litigation at a mid-size firm. Her experience includes arguing before the Superior Court of Pennsylvania and briefing before the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

Laura earned her juris doctor from the University of Michigan Law School. During law school, she served as a judicial intern in federal court in the Western District of Pennsylvania and served on the editorial board of two legal journals.

Outside of her legal practice, Laura volunteers on the board of a drug and alcohol rehabilitation center and offers mental health peer support through Lawyers Concerned for Lawyers. She is a cat mom to two cats, Noki and Cy.

Laura is admitted to practice in Pennsylvania and New Jersey.
