Harrisburg – 717.651.3502

As an associate in the Health Care Department, Michael focuses his practice on the defense of medical professional liability matters filed against hospitals, long-term care/rehabilitation facilities, medical practices, physicians, dentists, veterinarians and other health care providers.

Michael began his legal career at a large Philadelphia-based defense firm engaging in commercial motor vehicle and premises liability defense. He then made the switch to a plaintiffs' firm, handling a wide range of personal injury matters across Pennsylvania. Michael draws from his experience practicing on both sides of the aisle to effectively counsel clients and help achieve their desired outcomes.

When not practicing law, Michael enjoys the hiking the numerous trails in Central Pennsylvania, skiing/ snowboarding, and spending time with family – including his three golden retrievers.
