Nicole has devoted her entire legal career to the field of medical malpractice defense. She has nearly a decade of experience defending physicians, nurses, dentists, health care providers, hospitals, and health care facilities. She has also handled licensing and medical board matters.

Nicole attended The College of New Jersey where she was a member of the dance team and served as secretary of Alpha Phi Sigma, National Criminal Justice Honor Society. She was enrolled in the Accelerated January Degree Program at Pace University School of Law, graduating in two and a half years instead of the traditional three year curriculum.

Outside of the office, Nicole enjoys yoga, tennis, and spending time with her family in Long Beach Island.
