Alex has over 20 years of experience evaluating coverage obligations and defending domestic and international insurers in insurance coverage litigation. In addition, Alex has a particular interest and extensive experience in the defense of complex insurance coverage disputes involving environmental pollution and mass torts under commercial general liability (CGL) policies.

Alex has also successfully defended insurers in litigation involving CGL policies, municipal liability policies, property policies, athlete loss of value policies and permanent total liability policies.

In addition to traditional litigation and coverage evaluation, Alex has experience negotiating and implementing complex, coverage-in-place agreements following litigation and mediation.
