New York – 212.376.6469

Anjali is an Associate in the firm's Casualty Department, where she focuses her practice on general liability and construction accident litigation. She represents clients in a wide range of civil litigation matters, handling cases through all phases of litigation.

Prior to joining Marshall Dennehey, Anjali served as an Assistant District Attorney with the Manhattan District Attorney's Office, where she managed a high-volume caseload of misdemeanor and felony matters, participated in trials and regularly appeared in court on behalf of the People of the State of New York. She also previously practiced with a New York defense litigation firm, gaining experience in general liability and Labor Law matters, including motion practice, discovery and settlement negotiations.

Anjali earned her juris doctor, cum laude, from Touro Law Center and her B.S. in Legal Studies, summa cum laude, from St. John's University in 2021. While in law school, she served as a Senior Staff Member of Law Review, was selected for the Pro Bono Scholars Program, and received CALI Awards in Contracts I, Family Law and Civil Procedure II. She also served as president of the Students Helping Students organization, a teaching assistant for Contracts and Civil Procedure, and a student instructor in the LEAP Program for incoming law students.

Anjali is admitted to practice in New York.
