Christian is an Associate in the Casualty Department whose practice focuses on the defense of clients in a broad range of civil litigation matters. His practice includes the defense of bodily injury and property damage claims arising from automobile liability, trucking and transportation liability, and premises liability matters. He joined the firm in June 2025 as a summer associate and continued to work part-time with the firm as a law clerk throughout his final year of law school.

Christian earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Neuroscience with a minor in Chemistry from the University of Pittsburgh in 2022. In college, he served as President of the Coptic Orthodox Youth Association and worked as a teaching assistant for First-Year Programs and General Chemistry II.

In 2026, Christian earned his Juris Doctor from the University of Pittsburgh School of Law. While in law school, Christian was a Senior Editor of the Journal of Law & Commerce and worked as a teaching assistant for Legal Analysis & Writing I. Additionally, he completed the John P. Gismondi Civil Litigation Concentration, was the recipient of the CALI Excellence for the Future Award - Expert Witness, and was a recipient of a merit-based scholarship. Christian also served as a judicial intern for the Honorable Stephanie L. Haines of the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania.

Outside of the office, Christian enjoys spending time with his wife and family, and is an avid soccer, tennis, and Pittsburgh Steelers fan.

Christian is admitted to practice law in Pennsylvania.
