Westchester – 914.977.7306

Crystal is an associate in the Casualty Department, where she focuses her practice on the defense of clients in a wide range of civil litigation matters, including premises liability, motor vehicle accidents, and general liability claims. She represents clients in a variety of matters and assists with all phases of the litigation process, including legal research, motion practice, discovery, case evaluation, and trial preparation.

Before joining the firm, Crystal practiced workers' compensation law in New York, where she represented clients in administrative proceedings, prepared legal briefs and appeals, analyzed medical records and other evidentiary materials, and assisted clients throughout the litigation process. Through this experience, she developed a strong foundation in advocacy, legal research, and case strategy.

Crystal earned her juris doctor from Fordham University School of Law in 2023. While in law school, she participated in the Lincoln Square Legal Services Family Advocacy Clinic, where she represented clients in special education matters, conducted legal research, drafted motions and due process complaints, and advocated on behalf of children seeking access to appropriate educational services.

Crystal received her Bachelor of Business Administration, magna cum laude, from Berkeley College in 2020 and was named to both the President's List and Dean's List during her undergraduate studies.

Crystal is admitted to practice in New York.
