Dylan is an associate in the Casualty Department, where he focuses his practice on the defense of clients in matters involving amusements, sports & recreation liability, premises liability, negligence and automobile personal injury litigation.

Prior to joining Marshall Dennehey, Dylan practiced at a statewide defense litigation firm, where he gained experience representing corporate and insurance clients in a broad range of liability matters. He continues to focus his practice on defending corporations and insureds in complex civil litigation.

While attending law school, Dylan was a member and coach of the Tulane Mock Trial Team, distinguishing himself in national trial advocacy competitions and developing strong courtroom, public speaking, and advocacy skills. His commitment to excellence extended beyond the classroom, where he served as a professional cheerleader for the New Orleans Saints. During the 2023-2024 season, he was recognized as the organization's Rookie of the Year.

Dylan earned his juris doctor from Tulane University School of Law in 2025. Outside of work, Dylan enjoys visiting Orlando's theme parks, weightlifting, and spending time with his family.
