

Dylan T. Trochtenberg

Associate

DTTrochtenberg@mdwcg.com

Mount Laurel – 856.414.6043

In his role in the Health Care Department, Dylan's practice focuses on defending claims of medical malpractice and nursing home negligence.

Dylan is experienced in the many facets of litigation, having participated in dozens of arbitrations and hundreds of depositions, and having argued countless matters on behalf of his clients. He uses this experience to effectively litigate every matter, often resulting in favorable outcomes for his clients.

Prior to joining Marshall Dennehey, Dylan practiced at a small but well-respected firm in Central Jersey, where he litigated hundreds of cases on behalf of one of the largest insurance carriers in New Jersey. He previously served as a Committee Chair in the New Jersey Defense Association.

Dylan lives in Mount Laurel, New Jersey, with his wife.

Education

- Rutgers Law School (J.D., 2021)
- University of Missouri (B.A., 2018)

Admissions

- New Jersey, 2021

Associations & Memberships

- New Jersey Defense Association, Expert Database Committee Chair (2023-2025)

Practices

- Medical Malpractice
- Long-Term Care Liability

Thought Leadership

August 26, 2026

Medical Malpractice and AI: How the Federal Court's Holding in United States v. Heppner Impacts HealthCare Litigation

August 26, 2026

Claims of Future Medical Expenses Must Be Examined Carefully During Discovery to Avoid Unnecessary Surprise at Trial

The Quarterly Dose – August 2026

July 21, 2026

Claims of Future Medical Expenses Must Be Examined Carefully During Discovery to Avoid Unnecessary Surprise at Trial

February 25, 2026

LEGAL ROUNDUP – New Jersey

January 1, 2026

New Jersey Supreme Court Eases Affidavit of Merit Standard for Multi-Specialty Physicians in Medical Malpractice Cases