Pittsburgh – 412.803.3470

Eleanor is an associate in the firm's Professional Liability Department, where she focuses her practice on architectural, engineering and construction defect litigation.

Prior to joining Marshall Dennehey, Eleanor practiced family law at a mid-sized Pittsburgh firm, representing clients in matters involving complex business assets and significant personal financial interests. She gained extensive experience managing all phases of litigation, including discovery, motion practice and trial preparation.

Before pursuing a legal career, Eleanor was a four-year varsity golfer and team captain at Juniata College. While attending the University of Pittsburgh School of Law, she served as a legal intern for the Honorable J. Nicholas Ranjan of the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania. She also worked in the Elder Law Clinic and served as an Academic Success Teaching Assistant, mentoring and supporting fellow law students.

Outside of work, Eleanor volunteers as a girls golf coach with First Tee Pittsburgh, helping young athletes develop both their golf skills and confidence.

Eleanor graduated summa cum laude from Juniata College in 2022 with a Bachelor of Science in Economics. She earned her juris doctor from the University of Pittsburgh School of Law in 2025.

She is admitted to practice in Pennsylvania.
