Fort Lauderdale – 954.233.3025

Ethan is a member of the Casualty Department at Marshall Dennehey, where he focuses on defending clients in a variety of civil litigation matters, including automobile accidents, premises liability, and general liability claims. He represents individuals and businesses in matters involving liability disputes, applying his legal research and analytical skills to assist clients throughout the litigation process.

Prior to joining Marshall Dennehey, Ethan served as a summer associate at the firm in 2025. In 2024, he interned for Judge Norma. S. Lindsey of Florida's Third District Court of Appeal, where he conducted legal research, analyzed appellate briefs, and evaluated complex legal issues.

Ethan earned his juris doctor, magna cum laude, from the University of Miami School of Law in 2026. During law school, he served as an Executive Editor of the University of Miami School of Law Business Law Review, where he reviewed and edited legal articles for publication. He also served as a member of the Charles C. Papy, Jr. Moot Court Board, where he developed his advocacy skills through brief writing and oral argument.

Outside of his legal practice, Ethan enjoys mixed martial arts, following sports, traveling, and fitness.

Ethan is admitted to practice in Florida.
