Gabrielle (“Gabby”) is an associate in the Casualty Department, where she focuses her practice on the defense of clients in a wide range of civil litigation matters, including general liability, automobile liability, and defending insurance company clients in disputes with insureds, other insurers, and claimants.

Before joining the firm in July 2026, Gabby worked as a family law associate gaining valuable experience in high conflict, high asset divorce litigation in Cincinnati. During her time in family law, she assisted the managing partners in a high-volume docket, conducted in-depth legal research and writing on a variety of civil matters, and gained valuable experience in all phases of litigation including motion practice, depositions, discovery disputes, settlement conferences, and trial preparation.

Gabby earned her juris doctor from the University of Cincinnati College of Law in 2024. While in law school, Gabby served as a litigation fellow for the Ohio Innocence Project, where she worked to develop strategies to free incarcerated individuals in prison for crimes they did not commit. She also served as President of the Asian Pacific American Law Students Association, where she worked to promote diversity and representation within the legal community and advocated for greater litigation opportunities for members, including organizing and leading her team’s participation for Chicago’s 2023 National Mock Trial Competition in collaboration with the Black Law Student’s Association.

Outside of work, Gabby enjoys traveling to see her family in New York City, going to the gym, watching movies, and going to art museums.

Gabby is admitted to practice in Ohio and Kentucky.
