

Kylie M. Cafiero

Associate

KMCafiero@mdwcg.com

New York – 212.376.6421

Kylie is a member of the firm's Casualty Department where she primarily focuses on defending insurance carriers in personal injury protection claims and fraud investigations.

Prior to joining Marshall Dennehey, Kylie clerked for a judge in Kings County Supreme Court, Civil Term. As a judicial clerk, Kylie gained experience working in various practice areas, including personal injury, automobile liability, premises liability, and labor law.

Kylie earned her Bachelor of Arts from Providence College, graduating summa cum laude with a double major in Political Science and History. She then attended Brooklyn Law School, graduating cum laude in 2025. During law school, Kylie served as an Associate Managing Editor of Brooklyn Law Review.

Outside of work, Kylie enjoys staying active, reading, traveling, and spending time with family and friends.

Kylie is admitted to practice in New York.

Education

- Brooklyn Law School (J.D., cum laude, 2025)
- Providence College (B.A., summa cum laude, 2018)

Admissions

- New York, 2026

Associations & Memberships

- New York Bar Association

Practices

- Fraud/Special Investigation
- Trucking & Transportation Liability
- Premises & Retail Liability
- Automobile Liability