

Rose M. Hughes

Associate

RMHughes@mdwgcg.com

Scranton – 570.496.4620

Rose defends health care providers and institutions against malpractice and professional liability claims.

Prior to joining Marshall Dennehey, Rose served as a Trademark Examining Attorney at the United States Patent and Trademark Office, where she analyzed and approved trademark applications for publication and registration. She also served as a law clerk to the Honorable Judge Jennifer Harlacher Sibum in the Monroe County Court of Common Pleas.

Rose is a graduate of the Pennsylvania State University Dickinson School of Law in Carlisle, Pennsylvania. During law school, Rose was extensively involved in the Medical-Legal Partnership Clinic, serving as an Advanced Clinic student, Student Attorney, and summer Clinic & Research Assistant. She earned CALI Excellence for the Future Awards for her outstanding performance in the Medical-Legal Partnership Clinic and Entrepreneurship Law: Operational Issues. Rose also served as a summer law clerk at a personal injury litigation firm.

Prior to law school, Rose earned a B.A. in Economics at Kean University (summa cum laude). While at Kean, she was a four-year starter, two-year Captain and Most Valuable Player on the varsity Women's Tennis team. She also served as a General Education Mentor where she assisted in teaching a freshman seminar course, mentored incoming freshman and earned the Future Leader Award. She was also a speaker for the Economics Department.

Education

- Penn State Dickinson Law (J.D., 2021)
- Kean University (B.A., summa cum laude, 2018)

Practices

- Medical Malpractice

Admissions

- Pennsylvania, 2021