

Saynyenoh B. Warner

Associate

SBWarner@mdwcg.com

Philadelphia – 215.575.2713

Saynyenoh is a member of the Professional Liability Department where she focuses on defending suits made and brought against broker-dealers, registered representatives and registers investment advisors in Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) arbitration proceedings. She also concentrates her practice on privacy and data security matters, counseling and representing clients on different issues relative to privacy law, data breaches, intellectual property, copyright and trademark infringement.

Before joining the firm, Saynyenoh worked as an assistant district attorney where she handled cases with complex issues on appeal and presented oral arguments in front of the Superior Court of Pennsylvania.

While in law school, Saynyenoh gained ample experience in corporate law, specifically handling cases involving shareholder's derivative action as well as mergers and acquisitions. She also obtained a certificate of expertise in labor and employment law as a result of her extensive work in that area.

Education

- Chicago-Kent College of Law (J.D., 2023)
- State University of New York at Cortland (B.S., magna cum laude, 2019)

Admissions

- Pennsylvania, 2023

Practices

- Securities & Investments
- Professional Liability
- Privacy & Data Security

Thought Leadership

September 30, 2026

The Third Circuit Clarifies Article III Standing in Website Replay Litigation

July 21, 2026

FINRA Panel Orders Axos Clearing to Pay $49.2 Million to Former Worden Capital Clients

July 16, 2026

Congress Passes Financial Exploitation Prevention Act

April 1, 2026

FINRA Grants Motion to Dismiss Pursuant to Rule 13206 in Expungement Case

January 1, 2026

FINRA Fines and Suspends Former Financial Advisor for Naming His Wife and Children as Beneficiaries on a Client's Account