King of Prussia – 484.895.2319

Stephanie is an associate in the Casualty Department, handling matters involving general liability, premises liability, automobile liability, and hospitality & liquor liability.

Prior to passing the bar and throughout law school, Stephanie worked as a litigation paralegal for several years in practice areas such as family law, commercial litigation, and civil litigation. This first-hand experience created the foundation for her day-to-day practice at Marshall Dennehey. Before joining the firm, Stephanie practiced at a local defense firm where she defended corporate clients, including a Fortune 500 corporation, in matters ranging from contract related disputes to premises liability and trucking accidents.

Stephanie earned her juris doctorate from Widener University Delaware Law School's evening program where she completed coursework in trial advocacy and alternative dispute resolution. Stephanie is admitted to practice in Pennsylvania and New Jersey. In her spare time, she enjoys hiking, swimming, kayaking, and spending time with her family and three dogs.
