Veronica is a member of the Professional Liability Department where she focuses her practice on employment-related claims, including, but not limited to allegations of discrimination, violation of employment-related statutes, wrongful discharge, and breach of contract.

Prior to joining Marshall Dennehey, Veronica worked as an Assistant District Attorney at the Montgomery County District Attorney's Office in the Family Protection Unit where she managed cases ranging from the investigation level to those preparing for trial and worked directly with law enforcement in gathering evidence to make charging decisions. Veronica also previously completed a legal internship at the Montgomery County District Attorney's Office, as well as the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

In 2024, Veronica received her juris doctor from Villanova University Charles Widger School of Law. During law school, she was a member of the National Trial Team and the Sports Law Hockey Negotiation Team.
